From the Contingent Leader

Welcome to AJ2022! Orna Terpstra is the Contingent Leader of the South Australian Contingent to AJ2022.

Orna is currently Scout Leader at Flagstaff Hill and has been a Program Adviser for a number of years supporting Scout Troops in the southern area.

Orna started his Scouting journey as an Adult Helper before signing on as a Leader in 2003. In this time Orna has attended a range of Hoporees, Cuborees and Jamborees (3 ½) including as Jamboree Troop Leader for the last 2.

Outside of Scouting, Orna has been involved in the baking industry for a number of years which makes for some really yummy ideas for desserts for Scouts to be involved in making at camps!

Orna and his wife Cher (also a Scout Leader) enjoy spending time at Goolwa and have 4 children who have also been involved in Scouting. Orna is also a Coach in Rugby League and Rugby Union.

Preparing as a Scout Group

The countdown is on to AJ 2022

How prepared is your Group? It is now time to start preparing for the journey of a lifetime for your Scouts.

Budgets for 2021

- Preparing your group financially to attend the Jamboree
- Financial support for your leaders attending.
- Equipment that may be required.

Fundraising

Some Ideas to support the group

- Sausage Sizzles, Pancake breakfasts
- Quiz Night
- Bottle drives
- Garage Sales
- Lamington, Donut and Chocolate drives

Eligible Youth Members

Make sure you work out youth members eligible to attend AJ2022 - remembering a few may still be in Cubs!

Promoting AJ2022

Now is the time to start promoting AJ2022 to your Youth Members and getting them talking about the opportunities at AJ2022.

The following are great sources of information that already exist (or that are in the development)
